

Requires a

Public Health Nutritionist

September 2, 2019

Temporary, Full-time (1.0 Full Time Equivalent (FTE)) with potential for up to one year

1. Summary of duties:

Plans, implements, and evaluates specified programs as per the Ontario Public Health Standards: Requirements for Programs, Services, and Accountability and other programs administered by the Board of Health.

2. Minimum qualifications and position requirements:

- A Baccalaureate degree in food and human nutrition with full courses in:
 - Health promotion strategies;
 - Program planning and evaluation
 - Statistics and data analysis; and
 - Behavioural psychology.
- Completion of a Dietitians of Canada approved Dietetic Internship
OR
- Masters degree in community or public health nutrition.
AND
- Current Certificate of Registration with the College of Dietitians of Ontario

- Demonstrated effective ongoing ability to perform the following:
 - document accurately and timely;
 - use written, oral, and interpersonal communication skills to effectively articulate messages to various audiences;
 - effectively resolve conflict;
 - apply initiative, tact, diplomacy, and judgement in work-related and engagements that impact the workplace;
 - interpret and apply relevant legislation, research, and other relevant information;
 - apply negotiation skills that achieve the desired results;
 - work well independently and collaboratively with others as part of a team with multidisciplinary colleagues and community partners;
 - work productively and efficiently without close supervision;
 - adapt to new, different, or changing requirements on an ongoing basis
 - organize and re-organize workload as priorities and demands change;
 - use computer word processing, internet, and e-mail at an intermediate level; and
 - continuous learning and working with custom and general computer programs.
- Ongoing access to reliable, efficient and effective transportation throughout the work day as travel to multiple sites in a single day is required to areas that may be inaccessible by public transportation. At times, carpooling is required.
- Maintain up-to-date immunization according to the Ontario Publicly-Funded Immunization Schedule and/or the most recent edition of the Canadian Immunization Guide and the National Advisory Committee on Immunization as per the Peterborough Public Health policy; and
- TB skin testing is required at the onset of employment and may be required as part of routine TB surveillance or follow-up of potential exposures.

3. Program Division Minimum Requirements:

Demonstrated effective working knowledge, expertise, practical application and a minimum of six months full-time continuous experience in a public health environment related to:

- nutrition expertise related to healthy growth and development and chronic disease prevention;
- planning, developing, implementing and evaluation of nutrition programs, services, strategies and campaigns;
- leading in research and participating in education and activities promoting professional excellence;
- conducting needs assessments, program evaluation, data collection and social marketing;
- municipal and organizational policy development process;
- developing partnerships with community groups, government agencies and school boards;
- using a comprehensive approach to address disparities in health;
- meeting the needs of hard to reach populations and those impacted by the social determinants of health;
- facilitating partnership action;
- facilitations skills and experience in conducting group presentations and training; and
- addressing and speaking confidently, clearly, and articulately to audiences including large group presentations to the public and media.
- Requires availability for some outside of regular business hours including evening work.

4. Preferred Qualifications:

- Food Handler Certification.
- Masters of Public Health.

5. Apply in writing to:

Email: careers@peterboroughpublichealth.ca

Peterborough Public Health is committed to meeting the needs of persons with disabilities.

Accommodation will be provided throughout the hiring process at the request of the applicant.

In applying for this job make sure your resume and/or cover letter address the qualifications noted above.

Please note that only applicants to be given further consideration will be contacted for an interview.

6. Applications to be received no later than:

Thursday, May 23, 2019, at 4:00 p.m.