

This food premises requires all patrons dining together to attest that they are:

- A) joining a table only with their own household members; or
- B) joining a table only with one other household, if they live alone; or
- C) joining a table with another household, if they are a caregiver (essential for maintaining mental or physical health) for someone in that household.